Project Description (attach additional pages if necessary)

This project consists of the partial renovation of two buildings on the campus of the Snug Harbor Cultural Center. In Building F, the scope includes a 2500 square foot commercial kitchen on the north half of the first floor as well as support spaces: the northwest quarter of the cellar, the northeast quarter of the basement, and center section of the attic. Additionally, the DF hyphen basement and first floor will be used as storage and staging and a link between the basement of F and R will be restored in the FR hyphen.

In Building G, the project will convert the second floor to gallery space. The space is designed for a collection of 17th and 18th century English and Dutch furniture.
